

- a. Using information in Ordinance Section 32 – Enforcement and Penalties, McDonald and Santos met to draft similar notices that can be sent to Owners whose property remains non-compliant after documented notification has been made.
  - Basically notification of possible non-compliance will be sent, followed by a Violation notification (which includes a $50 fine). If necessary, subsequent notifications would be sent, each incurring additional fines ($100 and $200).
  - If necessary, a filing will be made with the Lincoln County Clerk – incurring an additional $300 fine (which is in addition to the outstanding permit fees).
  - To release the cloud on the property, the ALSZD must be satisfied the non-compliance has been resolved, with a decision made on a case-by-case basis concerning payment of the fine(s).
- b. Notice will be made to the public via the ALSZD website, and Santos will request the Club approve posting of the process in the Avalanche and via an email blast. Santos will ask the ALPOA to include the info in the Echo.
- c. McDonald will draft letters (per a., above) for approval and discussion at October meetings.
